

GEORGIA PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION AWARD
AL DOHANY AWARD FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE NOMINATION FORM

One of the benefits of membership with the Georgia Public Health Association (GPHA) is the ability to nominate individuals or groups for the various awards GPHA bestows.

Description of the Award: The Al Dohany award for Community Service is in honor of a Public Health Leader, Al Dohany, who was highly respected among his peers and who made great contributions to the promotion of public health through his work with family connection and community groups at the local level. This award is a Public Health Association Award and was established in 1999. This award is presented annually to an individual who has made a positive contribution to community health through collaboration with the community and its leaders. This contribution involves encouraging a collaborative approach with existing community entities that is essential to realizing the long term health outcomes of a community while recognizing the importance of communities and celebrating the diversity that makes a community vital.
