

Save the Date

BUILDING BRIDGES: A COMMUNITY AFFAIR

FREE
CONFERENCE

2008
UPDATE

Come join us for an exciting day of partnerships in action...
A collaborative effort to better protect the citizens of Georgia

When: September 26, 2008 - All Day Event

Where: The Medical Center of Central Georgia, Macon

Topics include: Vaccine Preventable Diseases, Notifiable Disease Reporting and Vulnerable Populations and Pandemic Influenza Update

Keynote Speaker: Larry K. Pickering, MD, FAAP

Senior Advisor to the Director of the National Immunization Program Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Editor of the Red Book, Executive Secretary of ACIP,

Target Audience:

Pediatricians, Family Practitioners, OB-GYN, Internal Medicine Physicians, Gen/Pediatric Nurses, Hospital Personnel, School Nurses, Public Health Nurses, Epidemiologists, Outreach Workers, Communicable Disease Specialists

To reserve your space TODAY...
please email Garcia.Memory@mccg.org or call 478-633-7036

Sponsored by the Children's Health Center at the Medical Center Central of Georgia in Conjunction with Georgia Public Health Association, Epidemiology Section