93RD GPHA ANNUAL MEETING AND CONFERENCE

ROUNDTABLE SESSIONS

≡ information & tips ≡

General Information

- Each presenter in a roundtable session will be assigned a table number. Specific table numbers can be found in the app and final printed program.
- Presenters should arrive 5-10 minutes before the start of their session and sit at their assigned table.
- Attendees will have the opportunity to select a table.
- Presenters will have a half hour, in-depth presentation and discussion with the attendees at their table.
- Check with your moderator regarding the expectations for your sessions.
- No audio-visual equipment is provided for roundtable sessions.
- No poster is needed.

Tips

- Split your 30-minute timeslot into a 15 minute presentation and 15 minute group discussion.
- Include a description of yourself in your introduction.
- Give an opening statement to acquaint the audience with the nature and purpose of your research, practice, or policy topic.
- Roundtable sessions should be engaging. Know what you want to ask of your audience.
- Take advantage of the small group presentation to dive into your work.
- Consider having business cards or handouts that you can give to attendees who want to find more information about your work.
